2018 – Issue 9

"Join the nation ... thank a Vietnam veteran!"

Monday, September 17

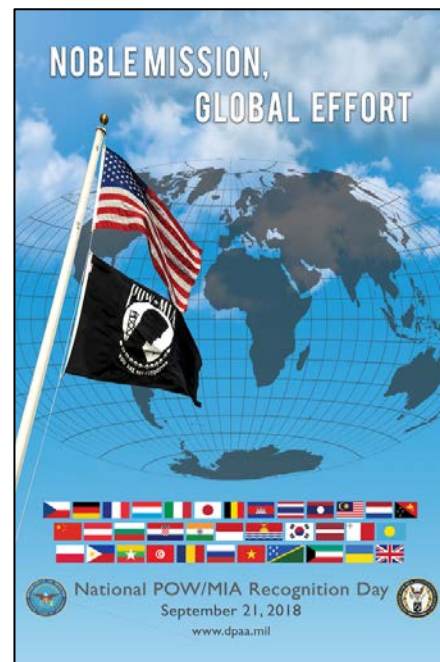

Dear Commemorative Partners,

National POW/MIA Recognition Day will be observed this year on September 21st. As the third Friday each year in September, this day is set aside to bring awareness to the more than 82,000 Americans unaccounted for from past conflicts. There are still 1,594 Americans unaccounted for from the Vietnam War as of August 24, 2018.

The National League of POW/MIA Families, a proud Commemorative Partner, has dedicated the last four decades to this remarkable mission. The League's sole mission is "to obtain the release of all prisoners, the fullest possible accounting for the missing and repatriation of all recoverable remains of those who died serving our nation during the Vietnam War."

According to the League, several of the 50 states have proclaimed POW/MIA Recognition Day in conjunction with the national effort. Each state has also been asked to issue a proclamation, so please contact your Governor and ask for his/her support and a copy of your state's proclamation. Click here to view a list of the states that have already issued proclamations.

As most of you already know, the Commemoration has developed the Certificate of Honor Program, which is designed to honor and give special recognition to four categories of Vietnam veterans and their families:
